Big Ideas for the Night

Wk 1 - The Story of God: CREATION

Genesis 1&2 teach us WHO God is.

This is God's good story.

Teaching Time

The Story of God - Wk 1 Creation

HOOK

Game/Quiz around the tables (if we can leave them up), Opening lines and scores from famous works.

BOOK:

Genesis 1:1a & following summaries of scripture groups.

-In the beginning... no one talks much about this/really gives reasons, but God isn't scared of it.

-How this account is a bit radical to the original audience and what it tells us about God (Creates out of nothing, single God & invested/desires goodness)

.Days 1-3 Creating Space / Days 4-6 Filling those spaces

LOOK:

- So what does this tell us about God?
- He has AWESOME ABILITY
- He has AUTHORITY/AUTONOMY

TOOK:

-What implications on our lives?
This is GOD's good story / It isn't about me, I'm invited still / Takes a weight from me.

This is God's GOOD story / God desires and wants GOOD. Fullness and beauty/ When i pursue beauty and goodness I'm in the neighborhood.

This is God's good STORY. God is author and there is a purpose and plan to things / Even if/when we can't see it. I can have confidence.

SMALL GROUP

Midweek Heads Up
Wednesday, November 9th 2022

- Icebreaker
- What is your favorite story(book, movie, song, storyline, etc)? Why do you love it?
- Up for Discussion
- We're suggesting to you that one thing the Bible starts off telling us, is WHO God is. If you had to describe God in a couple words what would they be? Where'd you get your ideas from?
- We said that life is not about you. What makes sense about that? Are there some instances in life where it could be about you?
- Why is that a bit of a hard statement to swallow "It's not about you" ?
- It seems God's original intent in creating was to make "good" things. What about that is maybe exciting? how about confusing?
- The last verse in this "act" is Genesis 2:25, why do you think the author includes this? What does it do or help describe?
- Sometimes it might seem that the creation story is just another "bible story" without much connection to everyday life. What is something we talked about tonight that maybe speaks to real life things for you?

Some things to consider....
